

RECIPROCAL STATES FOR INSURANCE CLAIMS ADJUSTER LICENSING

Applicants are exempt from taking the examination, if the individual is licensed in one of the States listed below and they are a resident of that State. THE RECIPROCAL STATE MUST BE THE APPLICANT'S HOME STATE. If the applicant does not reside in one the States listed below and they are not licensed, the individual is required to take and pass the Rhode Island Claims Adjuster examination.

Rhode Island has reciprocity agreements for Insurance Claims Adjuster licensing with the following states: (list updated 7-3-2008)

Connecticut

Kentucky

Maine

Michigan

New Hampshire

North Carolina

Oklahoma

South Carolina

Texas

Vermont

Wyoming