PERIOD OF VALIDITY FOR INSURANCE PRODUCER PRELICENSING COURSES

This Bulletin sets forth the period of time that insurance producer prelicensing courses are valid to satisfy prelicensing requirements prior to examination pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws §§ 27-3.1-1 et seq. and/or 27-3.3-1 et seq. All prelicensing courses taken after June 1, 2003 to satisfy prelicensing requirements prior to examination are valid for five (5) years from the date of completion of the course(s). If an individual does not take and pass the appropriate examination within five (5) years, that individual must take the prelicensing course(s) again prior to being eligible to take the examination.

An application which includes prelicensing courses taken more than five (5) years prior to June 1, 2003 to satisfy prelicensing requirements will be reviewed to determine whether or not said courses will be accepted to satisfy the prelicensing requirements. In making that determination the Department will consider all factors deemed appropriate under the circumstances including, but not limited to, relevant experience in the insurance industry and educational and professional training.
