Section 23—Filing of Agreements with Affiliates

The Commissioner may also require an insurer to file in such form as the Commissioner may require full information with respect to any purchase from or sale to an affiliate, whether or not made in pursuance of a continuing contract or arrangement.

Section 24—Effect of Failure to File Agreements

Any contract or arrangement not filed with the Commissioner pursuant to Section 23 of this Regulation shall be unenforceable and the Commissioner may petition the Superior Court for the County of Providence for an order voiding such contract. Any payments made or to be made thereunder shall be disallowed and reversed by the Commissioner notwithstanding any reliance or consequential damages incurred by the company, its officers, directors, employees, shareholders, or other persons associated with company unless the later filing thereof is approved in writing by the Commissioner.

Section 25—Investigation and Order as to Transaction Between Affiliates
The Commissioner shall have full power and authority to investigate any contract, arrangement, purchase, or sale, and if the Commissioner, after notice and hearing, shall find the contract, arrangement, purchase, or sale to be unjust or unreasonable, the Commissioner may make such reasonable order relating thereto as the public good requires. In any such investigation the burden shall be on the insurer or affiliate to prove the reasonableness of any contract, arrangement, purchase, or sale with, from, or to an affiliate. If the insurer shall fail to satisfy the Commissioner of the reasonableness of any contract, arrangement, purchase, or sale, the Commissioner may disapprove the same, or disallow payments thereunder or such part of any payment as the Commissioner shall find to be unjust or unreasonable, or both disapprove and disallow as aforesaid. No payment disallowed by the Commissioner shall be capitalized or included as an operating cost of the insurer in the fixing of rates or as an asset in fixing a rate base. If, in any investigation, the insurer or affiliate shall unreasonably refuse to comply with any request of the Commissioner for information with respect to relevant accounts and records, whether of the insurer or any affiliate, any portion of which may be applicable to any transaction under investigation, so that such parts thereof as the Commissioner may deem material may be made part of the record, the refusal shall justify the Commissioner in disapproving the transaction under investigation and disallowing payments in pursuance thereof.
